

Sean Titley

Sean is a Chartered Accountant (ACA) and Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA) with wide experience of successfully managing and performing audits, projects and development work in the UK and Internationally. With the National Audit Office, ran the largest single audit in the UK (£1.475 trillion) and have worked with the UN, EU, international governments, many major UK Government Departments, Agencies and NDPB's as well as the private sector.

Key expertise includes Financial Audit; Information Systems Audit; Risk Management; Corporate Governance; Quality Assurance; Treasury and Gilts; Training; Coaching, IFRS; GAAP; ISSAI, UNSAS, Team 21, MKI, IDEA, SAP, Oracle, SAGE and COBIT. Experienced to Board level, resourceful, client focused, managerially and technically competent with a record of developing improvements in systems, controls and processes that add value.

Sean enjoys reading, theatre, film, music, cricket, travelling and volunteering for charitable causes including roles as a Director / Trustee of the Minster Centre, a charity which provides professional training in psychotherapy and community based therapy services and also fund raising, particularly for Cancer Research charities.

