

Half Day Talk: Cyber Predictions for 2018

Date/Time: 23 January 2018, 2.00pm – 5.30pm
Location: Sime Darby Convention Centre, Kuala Lumpur

Overview

ISACA Malaysia Chapter is proud to bring back the annual Members Talk “Cyber Predictions for 2018” with focus on threat landscapes and cyber resiliency.

Most organizations are feeling more at risk of being the next victim of a cyber attack, given the increasing hyper-connectivity that society is moving toward in the year 2018.

The speakers will share on how the threat landscape is shaping up to be in 2018 from Malaysia perspective. Attendees will be able to gain awareness on how to confront the cyber threats.

Besides that, this member talk will also provide strategies and insights on how to effectively detect and respond to a cyber attack in a swift manner.

Keys Take Away

- Gain awareness how to prepare to face cyber attacks
- Understand the threat landscapes faced from a Malaysian perspective

- Recognize the threats and strategy on mitigating cybersecurity threats through effective incident response and threat intelligence

Who Should Attend

This talk is suitable for security practitioners, auditors, advisors, compliance officers, etc. who want to have a better understanding on the local threat landscape faced by Malaysian organizations and how organizations could better prepare for cyber attacks
