By applying for membership in ISACA, members agree to hold the Association and its chapters, and the IT Governance Institute, and their respective officers, directors, members, trustees, employees and agents, harmless for all acts or failures to act while carrying out the purposes of the Association and the Institute as set forth in their respective bylaws, and they certify that they will abide by the Association's Code of Professional Ethics (www.isaca.org/ethics).

Full payment entitles new members to membership from the date payment is processed by International Headquarters through 31 December 2018. No rebate of dues is available upon early resignation of membership.

Contributions, dues or gifts to the Information Systems Audit and Control Association are not tax deductible as charitable contributions in the United States. However, they may be tax deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses.

Your contact information will be used to fulfill your request to become an ISACA member, and may also be used by ISACA to send you information about related ISACA goods and services, and other information in which we believe you may be interested. As an ISACA member, we will be sure to keep you up-to-date on the latest products and services that are available to our community. By applying for membership, you confirm the information provided on this form is complete and accurate, and you authorize ISACA to contact you at the address and numbers you have provided, including to provide you with marketing and promotional communications. You further represent that the information you provided is yours and is accurate. To learn more about how we use the information you have provided on this form, please read our Privacy Policy, available at www.isaca.org. Should you elect to attend one of our events or purchase other ISACA programs or services, information you submit may also be used as described to you at that time.

US dollar amounts listed below are for local chapter-level student dues. While correct at the time of printing, chapter-level student dues are subject to change without notice. Please include the appropriate chapter dues amount with your remittance.

For current chapter-level student dues, or if the amount is not listed below, please visit the ISACA web site to find contact information for your local chapter at www.isaca.org/chapters.
